Reports from all over the state show a large amount of damage done by recent storms. At Montgomery more destruction resulted than has been known for many years. Six bridges were carried away. Lambra's saw-mill was completely ruined, and his loss is nearly $2,000. The town itself loses nearly $2,000 on roads and bridges, while the losses by individual farmers in the utter destruction of crops will run into the thousands. At Waterville the freshet swept away bridges and washed out the highways. It carried off two bridges in Belvidere. James Brown had about four thousand logs in his poud when the boom gave way and the logs started, and they are scattered along to Cambridge. Frank Laraway lost a number, how many can not be told, as the boom lifted and the logs went under. Lightning struck the belfry of the old factory, making the splinters tiy in all directions. The sluice-way at the foot of the Chaffee hill choked up and the water poured over the road. Allen Mann, who lives at the foot of the hill, was obliged to go into the chambers, the water dooding the lower floors. The bridge below Laraway's mill was carried away, also the wing of the covered bridge, besides several small bridges in town. The rain was accompanied by hail, which broke some glass. The water was the highest known for fortytwo years. Domestic.

While four men, engaged in "pillar-robbing," or cutting away the coal supporting the roof of the Nottingham colliery, Plymouth, Penn., were eating their dinner, tentons of top coal and rock fell on them, instantly killing three and fatally injuring the fourth. The injured man had both legs and an arm broken.

The coroner's jury in the Cronin case at Chicago rendered their verdict last week Tuesday evening. They found that Dr. Cronin was decoyed from his home and murdered; that the body was thrown into the catch-basin where it was found, and that the murder was the result of a foul and brutal plot by members of the Clan-na-Gael.

The town of Plainfield, N. H., was the scene of a double murder last week Monday night. Lucius Freeman, who lived with his mother, Mrs. Mary Freeman, brutally murdered John Morgan, a quiet and respectable citizen, who was in bed at the time, and subsequently his mother, inflicting terrible wounds on the neck of each with an axe. Insanity was the cause.

A DESTRUCTIVE washout occurred at Holyoke, Mass., last week Tuesday night, which swept out about one hundred feet of the solid stone-wall on the east of the lower level canal, demolished twenty or thirty feet of the west wing of the Water Power Company's mill and wrecked a bridge owned by the Connecticut Riv.r railroad. As near as can be estimated, the loss will be from $75,000 to $100,000. $75,000 to $100,000.

THE coroner's jury in the Cronin case decided to hold Alexander Sullivan and the three prisoners arrested for complicity in the murder of the doctor. Charles McDonald and John J. Moroney of New York were arrested by Inspector Byrnes on orders from Chicago, on charges of complicity in the murder. Both prisoners acknowledge they are Clan-ne-Gael men. Sullivan has been released on $20,000 bail.

The "Trenton" and "Vandalia," which were wrecked at Samoa last March, have been abandoned by the government, and their names will be stricken from the navy list. All the valuables of both vessels, including the batteries, have been recovered and are now en route to San Francisco on the steamship "Alameda." Admiral Kimberly and the ren.aining survivors are on board, and expect to reach this country board, and expect to reach this country about July 8.

The robbery of the First National Bank of Atchison, Kan., which occurred last September, was disclosed last week. A man entered the bank about noon, and telling the cashier, who was alone, that some one wanted to see him outside, went behind the counter and helped himself to $23,000 in bonds and money. The matter was kept quiet, and last March the securities were recovered, being handed over in Denver by a go-between on terms not disclosed. go-between on terms not disclosed.

EIGHTEEN miners at Essen, Prussia, who were recently on strike, have been sentenced to imprisonment, for terms ranging from one to six months, for rioting. The firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, Mass., has entered a claim against the Dominion government, amounting to over $124,000, for damages in connection with an illegal customs seizure made three years ago.

A LETTER received at Zanzibar from Ururi, on the southeastern shore of the Victoria Nyanza, dated December 2, reports the arrival there of Henry M. Stanley with a number of invalid members of his force. The letter says that Stanley had sustained heavy losses, a large number of his men having died from disease and famine. The explorer had rejoined and left Emin Pacha at Unyara, on the northeastern shore of the lake.

A TRAIN containing an excursion party was wrecked near Armagh, Ireland, last week Tuesday. The party occupied three trains and the accident occurred on a steep grade. The engineer of the second train, grade. The engineer of the second train, finding his engine powerless to pull the train up the grade, unlinked several of the cars, with the object of taking the front portion of the train to the next station and returning for the remainder. Heavy stones were placed behind the wheels of the detached cars, to prevent them from slipping, but the locomotive, on restarting, gave the entire train a shunt that displaced the stones. The result was that the detached cars began to slip backward down the grade, their speed gradually increasing, until they had attained a frightful velocity. After running four miles they crashed with terrific force into the third train at a point about a mile and a balf from Armagh. half from Armagh.

Remarks.

The supply of northern and eastern cattle in market for the past week has been light, with but few nice beef cattle for the butcher's trade. The best cattle are selling at 54 to 6½c per pound, dressed weight. Light grades of northern cattle and cows sell at 2½ to 3½c per pound, live weight, or 4 to 5½c per pound dressed weight.

TRADE in western dressed beef has been should bear this point in mind.

The wool market is more active than for months, chiefly owing to the fact that more wools are coming to hand, and the selections is correspondingly improved. Manufacturers have been in the market and have called to buy wool. They have generally accepted the fact that if not prepared to pay more than last year or last month they must close their mills. The business has been very largely confined to New Texas and California wools, which are now coming freely to hand. The general range of prices is from ten to fifteen per cent the scoured pound above last year's figures, and with the present outlook the chance of marked reaction is small.

"Is there anything new in the poultry line nowadays," was asked of a leading poultryman at Fanenil Hall. "Yes," he replied, "there are new ducks and geese in market—ducks weighing from seven to eight pounds per pair and geese ten pounds each. The entire supply of geese at present come from Rhode Island and the ducks from that state and also from a few towns in Massachusetts. There is very little demand for either, as the price (25c per pound) is too high to permit of general consumption. The West sends no geese nor ducks here in the summer, the season's demand being wholly supplied by New England. Chickens are very plenty, and in the knowledge of the trade prices were never lower at this season. Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and Indiana are sending roore spring chickens than ever before. Three years ago there were no spring chickens shipped here from the West. While our best home stuff is worth 25c, 15c is a fair price for western, which are inferior in quality, color and mode of dressing. Western chickens are very small, and are being shipped East packed in finely-chopped ice in barrels, averaging lifty pairs to the barrel.

remedy than Swift's Specific, and we further say that Swift's Specific has never been known to fail to make a permanent cure in any case when it has been taken before any of the vital organs had become so impaired as to render a cure impossible.

"Swift's Specific entirely cured me of a severe case of blood poison which obstinately resisted and refused to be cured for over twenty-six years. The regular medical remedies of mercury and potash only added fuel to the flame. I suffered during most of this long time with ulcers, blotches and sores of the most off-nsive character, and was for a long time practically an invalid. In less than thirty days' use of S. S. S. I was all cleared up sound and well. This has been nearly a year ago and no sign of any return of the old enemy. John B. Willers, "87 Clark street, Atlanta, Ga."
